Attachment B3: Coach and Instructors Code of Conduct

Coaches and instructors educate participants in the fundamental techniques, skills and tactics of sailing. Accredited coaches and instructors are vital to quality sailing development.

Sailing coaches and instructors shall:

- Agree to abide by the code of conduct.
- Become accredited and keep that accreditation up to date.
- Encourage enjoyment of sailing, participation should be for pleasure, winning is only part of the fun.
- Cater for varying levels of ability so that all sailors have a 'fair go' in both practice and competition.
- Provide equal encouragement to males and females to participate, acquire skills and develop confidence.
- Make opportunities available for exceptionally talented sailors or boating participants to develop their full sailing and/or boating potential.
- Prepare and conduct sessions based on sound coaching principles.
- Set realistic standards and objectives for juniors.
- Provide safe sailing or boating conditions.
- Insist that the required protective clothing is fitted and worn appropriately.
- Educate sailors and in the case of juniors, the parents on health and safety in sailing or boating.
- Abide by the World Anti-Doping Code and the Yachting Australia Anti-Doping Policy.
- Ensure that the consequences of inappropriate behaviour are clearly understood by sailors and boating participants, and in the case of juniors, the parents.
- Keep up to date with sailing and boating coaching development.
- Operate within the rules and spirit of the sport and teach your sailors and boating participants to do the same.
- Never ridicule or yell at young sailors or boating participants for making a mistake or not coming first.
- Provide a good role model of sporting behaviour and respect the rights, dignity and worth of every sailor and boating participants regardless of their age, gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
